Victor Starkov

MAcc student at The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign |
Incoming Tax Associate at PwC | CPA Candidate
Greater Chicago Area

Summary

I'm a tax-focused accounting professional passionate about turning complex financial and tax data into clear insights that drive better decisions. I've built dashboards, improved tax processes, and supported financial operations for 60+ businesses through internships at PwC, Cars Commerce, and Naughton & Company. With highest honors from Gies College of Business, James Scholar recognition, and leadership roles across campus and community organizations, I'm committed to continuous growth and meaningful impact. As I pursue my MAcc and CPA licensure, I'm excited to return to PwC and continue developing as an international tax professional.
